2015
World Dairy Expo®
Recognition Awards

Guidelines for Nominations

Industry Person of the Year

This award is presented to an individual in recognition of excellence for research, development, education, marketing, manufacturing, or other fields, which are a part of an industry or institution that provides goods or services to the dairy industry. This person is a resident of the United States and may be an active dairy producer whose primary achievements are industry focused.

Dairyman of the Year and
Dairy Woman of the Year

These two awards, the Dairyman of the Year and the Dairy Woman of the Year, are presented to an individual who is an active dairy producer and whose primary source of income is derived from the dairy enterprise. His/her farming operation should excel in efficient production and the breeding of quality dairy animals. Progressive management practices and a history of achievement will need to be evident. His/her involvement in the community, government activities, marketing organizations, World Dairy Expo and other aspects of the dairy industry will also be considered.

International Person of the Year

The individual who receives this award will be recognized for their contribution to improved international relations and/or the development of the dairy industry internationally. This person has a primary residency outside of the United States.
