

WDE Dairy Cattle Exhibitor Committee At-Large Breed Representatives 2026 Nomination Form

Nominations Close 5:00 p.m., Friday, October 3, 2025

Nominations for the Dairy Cattle Exhibitor Committee At-Large Breed Representative are accepted from a cattle exhibitor, who is an owner and has exhibited at least one head at World Dairy Expo during three of the last five years. Nominees must be an owner whom has exhibited at least one head at World Dairy Expo during three of the last five years and meet all requirements defined below. Nominations may be submitted online by logging in to your Exhibitor dashboard account or by written form. Nominations will be accepted for the breed in which the exhibitor has entered cattle.

Ballots will be emailed in January 2026 and distributed to the exhibitor/owner contact email and allow for 1 vote for each breed show the exhibitor/owner had an animal placed at the current year's completed breed show.

At-Large Breed Representatives Definition:

- Elected by the cattle exhibitors of that breed
- Must be a cattle exhibitor of the breed representing and as defined above
- One Representative for a Breed must be from outside Wisconsin
- May be elected to a maximum of three, four-year terms
- Representative must attend greater than 50% of meetings during their term to be eligible for re-election
- May be re-elected following a four-year absence from Dairy Cattle Exhibitor Committee
- Four-Year term begins at the March 2026 Dairy Cattle Exhibitor Committee meeting

Representative seats listed below in bold are up for nomination. The listed representative is noted if they are eligible for re-election. Please consider your breed representative nominations for their activity and action with the breed exhibitors.
